NKU MEDIA ARTS FESTIVAL

WHAT:

is for YOU!

The NKU Media Arts Festival combines filmmaking workshops, screenings, and a video competition to inspire a day devoted to the love and art of media creation. Attendees will be able to not only showcase their video work, but to meet other media makers, learn from area professionals, ask questions of college students in their field, and have the chance to win fabulous prizes! The festival will consist of an awards ceremony, various seminars, and campus activities specifically designed for high school students.

WHEN/WHERE:

The NKU Media Arts Festival will be held October 23, 2009 at NKU in the new Student Union. Workshops and screenings of submitted films will be held throughout the day. The event will conclude with an awards ceremony and screening of the winning entries.

HERE'S HOW:

Simply fill out the conference registration form and submit it along with $15. Your $15 allows you to attend, AND enter up to two (2) videos for the competition! Additional videos can be entered for $5 each. (Registration and Submission forms will be here soon!)

CONTEST RULES:

Video submissions must be on DVD. The DVD must be clearly labeled with the name of submitter, phone number, title, and runtime (minutes and seconds). Works submitted should be no longer than 10 minutes in length. All genres are welcome and all films submitted will be eligible for awards*.
